

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA MORRIS

A renewable, sustainable education.

36th Annual Midwest Philosophy Colloquium

Honor and Ethics

Friday, April 6, 2012

HFA Recital Hall

Free and Open to the Public

Keynote Speakers

Laurie M. Johnson

Political Science—Kansas State University

Thomas Hobbes: Turning Point for Honor

Lad Sessions

Philosophy—Washington and Lee University

Honor For Us: A Philosophical Analysis, Interpretation and Defense

Schedule

9:15 a.m. Chancellor Jacqueline Johnson Welcome

9:30 a.m. Ryan Rhodes—University of Oklahoma
"Honor and the Moral Value of Reputation"

10:30 a.m. Stephen Mathis—Wheaton College
"Justifying Academic Honor Codes"

11:30 a.m. Shannon French—Case Western Reserve University
"Honor Through the Ages: Differing Conceptions of a Key Concept at the Heart of the Warrior's Code"

2 p.m. Laurie Johnson—Kansas State University
"Honor in Today's America"

3:15 p.m. Frank Stewart—Hebrew University
"An Anthropologist Looks at Honor"

4:30 p.m. Lad Sessions—Washington and Lee University
"Honor, Morality, Brotherhood"

The Midwest Philosophy Colloquium is co-sponsored by the Division of the Humanities, International Programs, the Honors Program, and the Political Science, Sociology, and Anthropology Disciplines.

